

SUMMER SWIM LESSONS

$50 for 50-minute lessons (youth levels 3-6)

$25 for 25-minute lessons (parent/child aquatics, preschool, youth levels 1-2, and adult)

SIGN-UP PROCESS:

- 1) Attend the (pre-screen) at Ranger Indoor Pool, June 12-15 & 18-19 from 2-5 p.m. to determine you or your child's swim level*
- 2) Each family will randomly draw a "time card" that specifies the date & time for swim lesson registration
- 3) With "time card" in hand, register and pay for swim lessons at the Central Registration Office, bldg. 3250. on the designated date and time. It's OK to show up later than the time specified, but not before.
- 4) Patrons who register and complete one of the sessions listed below will draw another "time card" in registering for the next session. First-time patrons will draw their "time cards" during the Time Card Drawing Dates listed below.
- 5) Open registrations for each session at Central Registration are conducted on the Thursday and Friday of the "Time Cards" drawing week.

*If you are unable to attend the pre-screen date above, please call 264-6165 at Ranger Indoor Pool to arrange for an available date and time.

 Infants: Although infants do not require a pre-screen, parents are still required to still draw a "time card" for swim lesson registration.

IMPORTANT: Before registering for Swim Classes, all patrons must be enrolled with the Central Registration (264-3588) database. If you're already enrolled, you can skip this step.
